

National Heritage Science Forum – Treasurer (Voluntary)

The National Heritage Science Forum (NHSF) seeks to recruit a Treasurer to support its active Board of Trustees in the delivery of NHSF's charitable objects and implementation of the new Strategic Framework for Heritage Science in the UK.

About the National Heritage Science Forum

The National Heritage Science Forum (NHSF) brings together the diverse and multidisciplinary heritage science community. The Forum's members are organisations from across the Arts and Sciences. NHSF represents many of the major UK institutions that make a significant contribution to Heritage Science in the UK. NHSF works through its members to:

- improve collaboration across heritage science;
- demonstrate the public benefit of heritage science, and;
- help practice make better use of research.

In 2018 NHSF led work to develop a new strategic framework for Heritage Science in the UK (<http://www.heritagescienceforum.org.uk/what-we-do/strategic-framework>). This framework responds to changes in the policy and operating environment for heritage science including the establishment of UK Research & Innovation and a new structure for the Research Councils, the publication of the Industrial Strategy and Digital Strategy, and a post Brexit vote landscape.

NHSF will now work with the wider heritage science sector to implement the strategic framework. It has identified the following as key areas of activity for the Forum in the next 1-3 years:

- strengthening relationships with strategic bodies to secure funding streams that are accessible to heritage science
- growing membership to be more inclusive and representative of the UK heritage science community
- communicating the public benefit of heritage science more clearly.

NHSF is a registered charity (1154160) and is committed to demonstrating the public benefit of heritage science, and increasing public engagement and support for it. The Forum has its roots in the recommendations of a House of Lords Select Committee report on Science and Heritage (2006), the Science and Heritage Programme (AHRC/EPSRC 2007-13) and the National Heritage Science Strategy (2010).
